Holde vp oure pouge spuge Aue benigna
And sende vs pees in oure soude aue regina
Water mīc bright ben thi benyng
Moder of thy sone bothe reues
Se to onē innocent oure crowne may be gladdere
Holde vp oure lorde that neu sygh his fadre
For the fader his sone regnyge i his londes
Graue hane we to kepe pees amonge vs
On a soday trewh ye may trouwe
Our bishopes & oure abbotes were nutrid arolye
Two Archebischopes so worthia aquynned
And a gracions cardinall aboute our kyng appointed Thre swerdes ther were borne on popytles & ii popytred
The tou was the swerde of may ye secūde of estate
The thrid swerde of the emper the whiche artonē gate
Thre dukes were in p̄sent worschipe to encrese
Two bishopes him ladde to kepe in pees
By erles in ther estate shewden them alle
And the v portes beynge vp the palle
Gracions warwith god him continue
Beynge vp his trayne in pees and vne
All the barons of oure londe to gedre ther wec fōnden
The iugges the knyghtes of ye shire & ye cite of london
This is the prestion goynge thowis the halle
Angeles were māna on his crowne did falle
And coueynd i this londe the crowne to entrefe
Eli endurynge with p̄sent and pees
The Archebischop of Canturbey so appointed

The gracious kynge herry the fyfte he auoynted
Our soueyne lord in the chief who woff vnderstoude
The Carduak who was on his right honde
On the tother side the chamucelr these lordes were alle
The bishop of beuez at the same table
Huntingdon kueluge w^t his septur on the right honde
Stafforde with his swerde ther worthily holdande
Forfolk as a mekall sic worthill beknowe
Ridunge in his office trewly ye may troue
Salisbury in bedforde office p^sent him there Stryunge on a sede as he constable were
The v portes on the right honde that the palle bere
At the borde on the right honde p^sent they were
At the nexte bishopes and abbotes to gediv were fonde
And on the tother side the cite of London many other lordes were p^sent in that place
To worshippe oure soueyne lord w^t all solace
Before the kynge with his lordes thus strunge all Come philyp demok knyght ridunge to the halle Armed cleue w^t armoure so bright like as p^seneth to a worthi knyght
As the kynges champion bi heritage
There redy his body and his gloue to wage yf ther be ony man that wol say the contrarie
That kynge herry the fyfte is crownded trewly he is redy to deliui him and nought abasshe
By signem^t of the kynges tyme and place
Pray we alle bothe more and lesse

Criste saine engeloude in reste and pese
And good conforte that mekil hath loste
That was wonne w^t worshippe late neu be loste
