

newe made knyghtis and when the kynge shall dymid. then they shall goo in to their chambers and doo of their arayment and that the heron doe shall haue for their fee. ¶ Then they shall doo vp on them longe blewe gownes and it muste be purfild aboute with ermyu and a wythe case of silke with golde in the toftis muste be pynd a pyu vp on his lyfte schuldre and a hood of the same purfild aboute of the shawe as the cheletris of lawe han and the hood muste be caste adoute his neck and the hood and the tye pynd to gedre vp on the lyfte schuldre and then they shall goo alle to gedre vn to the kyng and when they come in to his presence on shall say for them alle in this wise. most hie and excellent and most myghti pnce oure souerain lorde we thanke you of this hie and worship full ordre that ye haue gyue vn to vs and we as youre liege men shall be redy at youre comandement. then they shall bose them downe alle at oure and arise and goo their wey then they shall goo in to their chambers and change hem and all these gownes and hoodes the sergant of the kyngis chamdres shall haue for his fee. And then all the newe made knyghtis may doo what them listis for all to dout and endid. //

To make aqua poposita

Take a handfull of Rosmary a good boote of alacapan a handfull of Redfennell a handfull of of yosse gale a handfull of tynde gale a handfull of Sage vij good grop of red myrt as many pomegranat gale a handfull of rose honyed by the way of magyon ij ounces of lye wood well payed and blyssed as myghts amoynted by the way of magyon of good alle and take all the forsyde and eys alle and put them in a pott and set the apone the frey & let them stande for the they begin to boyle & then take them from the freys and upon the pott a limbeck and froy it into lye space that they come none way out & so to lye it with a soft froy as to to do aquabito ij gallon of alle and a gallon of lye of red wine